THE PRESIDENT.

Will Probably Issue a Warning to Cossack Army.

The Warning Will Likely Be Given Out as a General Statement Through the Press in the Shape of an Informal Statement.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—President Cleveland is greatly disturbed over the coming of the Cossack army and has sought advice on the subject from members of his cabinet and prominent congressmen, and Sunday he had a conference with the chief of police.

The president has positively decided to issue a semi-official proclamation, advising all persons who are contemplating entering the national capital that they must respect the laws and conduct themselves in a peaceful and respectful manner.

The negative warning will come in the form of a general statement through the press associations under the guidance of an interview.

The president has been informed that there are rumors of the Cossack army's intention to enter the city.

During the Cossack administration, some of the remnants of that defunct political organization determined to proceed to Washington with the intention of forcing the president to resign.

NICHOLS LAW.

Unconstitutional, Says Judge Taft of the Circuit Court.

CINCINNATI, April 27.—In the United States circuit court Monday, Judge Taft handed down the opinion of the court in the cases heard on denunciations last December, in which five express, telephone and telegraph companies sought relief in equity against the collection of an assessment of state taxes against their properties under the operation of what is known as the Nichols law, which in effect is a repeal of section 2778 of the Ohio statutes. The companies prayed for the issuance of a preliminary injunction against the auditor of state, attorney general, treasurer of state, and treasurer of counties, restraining them from executing a collection of the taxes involved.

The hearing was on the demurrer of the defense, which raised the question of the validity of the repealing act, the Nichols law, which was passed on April 27, 1893, and which has since been repealed by the legislature.

The companies prayed for the issuance of a preliminary injunction against the auditor of state, attorney general, treasurer of state, and treasurer of counties, restraining them from executing a collection of the taxes involved.

Reduced.

John Johnson returned from Frankfort Wednesday, where he went to appear before the State Board of Equalization on behalf of Lawrence county. He succeeded in getting the additions made by the Board (1% on lands and personal property, and 3% on town lots) taken off. This leaves the books just as they were when they came from the hands of the supervisors.

An addition of 29% had been made to the Boyd county assessment, but a delegation from that county succeeded in getting it removed.

Rico-Cockrell.

Married, on Wednesday, April 25th, at the home of the bride's parents at Earl, Morgan county, Ky., Miss Eugene Cockrell to Mr. John R. Rice, Jr. The wedding took place at 7:30 a. m., and the couple left at once for this place, arriving here yesterday morning.

The bride is a daughter of R. E. Cockrell, one of Morgan county's most prosperous farmers, and is able to do more than her share. In sustaining the reputation of Kentucky for beautiful women.

The groom is a son of Hon. John M. Rice, and has filled with credit positions in the revenue service and Land Office.

They will leave Monday for Frankfort, where Mr. Rice has a lucrative position in the Auditor's office.

The News extends congratulations.

We take the following from the Mt. Sterling Gazette of April 25: The groom is a brother of Miss Gertrude Stonebraker, of this place, and has many friends here.

STONE BRIDGE LANDS.—At the residence of Josiah Lindsay, corner of High street and Howard Avenue, this evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. A. Ridd, pastor of the Methodist church, performing the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay's only daughter, Miss Jennie Elizabeth, will be married to Mr. Charles A. Stonebraker. The wedding will be very quiet, only the relatives and a few intimate friends will be present. The groom is bookkeeper for I. F. Tabb, the Maysville Street Commission Merchant, and is a popular young gentleman. This city has not always been his home, in fact he has only lived here a few years, but by his quiet gentlemanly manners has made warm and true friends. Miss Lindsay, the bride, is a very handsome young lady, loved and respected by all who know her. The Gazette and their many other friends in advance extend congratulations, and sincerely hope their married life will be happy and prosperous.

Judge Marcum.

For some time past it has been known that many friends of Hon. W. W. Marcum were pressing him to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Criminal Court of Wayne county, W. Va., and it was only a few days ago that he consented to enter the race.

Mr. Marcum was long a citizen of Louisa and we take pleasure in saying that we know him to be a first class lawyer, a gentleman in every sense of the word, and a man who will be true by any trust placed with him. As County and Town Attorney he was a faithful servant and retired with the confidence and good will of the people. If the Democrats of Wayne shall see fit to nominate Mr. Marcum we feel safe in assuring them that they will never have cause to regret it. As a Democrat his record is clean and as a Judge he would be governed by a "level head" and the strictest sense of integrity.

A WOMAN'S BURDEN

are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by the chronic weaknesses, delicate derangements, and painful disorders that afflict her sex, she will find relief and emancipation from her troubles in Dr. Terry's Favorite Prescription. If she is overworked, nervous, or "run down," she has new life and strength after using this remarkable remedy. It is a powerful, invigorating tonic and nerve tonic which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years. It cures all cases of "female complaints" and weaknesses. For young girls just entering womanhood, for women at the critical "change of life" in learning to control, periodical pains, ulceration, inflammation, and every kindred ailment, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Court Proceedings.

Three days of this week were devoted to the trial of the land suit of Wm. Young, Sr., vs. Wm. Young, Jr., which resulted in favor of the plaintiff.

The case of the D. & B. S. Hallways vs. Silas P. Warden and others, which involves some valuable timber and a large tract of land on Tug, was continued.

In the case of the Town of Louisa vs. W. H. Waldeck a verdict was rendered in favor of the town. The defendant made a motion for a new trial.

One jury was discharged yesterday afternoon. The other is engaged on the case of Holbrook vs. Swetnam, which will probably be the last trial this term.

The Louisa Gun Club met Wednesday evening and made the following scores:

Pritchard, 001110001110101010-10
Ratcliff, 1111100111010111101-16
Anderson, 111011110100010001-11
Welch, 11111111111111111-21

In the above, birds killed are marked 1; those missed, 0. Twenty-one birds were shot at.

The Club is practicing to meet the Crack Club of Ironton shortly.

PEACH ORCHARD.

Rev. R. F. Rice began a protracted meeting here last Sunday night. We trust that much good may be accomplished.

Elia Johnston left yesterday for Huntington, W. Va., to be present at the marriage of her friend, Miss Betty Duane, of Huntington, to a Mr. Jackson, of Colorado.

The mines have run every day this week. Good prospects of a "full run."

Frank Wallace returned Saturday from Cincinnati, after a long visit.

There are Sarsaparillas and Sarsaparillas; but if you are not careful in your purchase, the disease you wish to cure will only be intensified. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla and no other. It is compounded from the Honduras root and other highly concentrated alternatives.

Child Mutileress.

At Grant Switch, Carter County, Louisa Sexton, aged 17, has been held to the Criminal Court in the sum of $300 to answer a charge of infanticide. Four weeks ago she hid her new-born babe beneath a log pile, leaving it to die rather than to take it home and brave her father's anger. Since then she has been dangerously ill and is only recovering. Bail was furnished.

Coal Miner's Strike.

On last Saturday 150,000 miners, members of the United Mine Workers Union, laid down their picks. The strike covers all the important mining districts in the east and south, and indications point to a long struggle. The price of coal has gone up in many places.
